NEAR FRIEDALE, HOCHAMIXON TOWNSHIP, DUCKS COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

(Prepared as a proface to the Graveyard records)

There is no documentary evidence at hand to show when the Lutheran and Reformed congregations at Hochamixon were first established or when places of worship were first erected, or where burying grounds were first laid out.

LUTHERAN CONGREGATION

There is some tradition to show that the Lutheran congregation may have been organized as early as 1735, but it was not until August 20, 1761, that a plot of land, containing one half an acre, was purchased from Michael Hesser for its use. Owing to some friction a deed for this was not executed until June 3, 1764. This tract was across the valley, about half-a-mile east of the present Union church, and was located on both sides of the public road leading from Friedale to Hivima. It appears that a log building was erected thereon and a burying-ground laid out. The site of the log church is now occupied by the "Centre Hill" schoolhouse. All traces of graves are entirely obliterated. The recorded records of the Lutheran church begin November 16, 1766.

During those early days there were several private burying-grounds in that neighborhood. One of these is on the farm of Michael Schick, about half-a-mile to the northwest from the present Union church; there are however too many graves there to suggest a private family plot. The markers are of red sandstone, and none of the names are legible, but the dates 1734 - 1746 - 1764 and 1815 are decipherable. These are probably the dates of deaths. Another of these abandoned graveyards is at Gallows Hill on the Lutheran road on Youngman's farm, formerly belonging to Frank Campbell. That one however belonged to the Red Hill Presbyterian congregation. It is referred to by Gen. Davis in his History of Ducks County, First edition, page 544. There is also a private burying ground on the farm late the property of the late Jacob Symons, between Friedale and Ryvere, but none of the names are decipherable, and was doubtless the private place of sepulture of the Afflerbach family who owned the farm at an early day. The statement has been frequently made that the Hochamixon churches were the outgrowth of the Springfield church, and no doubt many early burials of its members were made at that place.

REFORMED CONGREGATION

The Reformed congregation was doubtless established a few years later than that of the Lutheran. The recorded records, that have been preserved, begin November 7, 1773. During the early years the Reformed churches were referred to as the "German Presbyterian", the present official name is "The Reformed Church in the United States of North America". When first organized the Hochamixon congregations worshipped in separate buildings. The minutes of the Reformed Church Coetus (Synod) refer to the Hochamixon Reformed church in 1773, and arrange to send it a preacher, showing that there was an organization prior to that time. The earliest record of land purchased was in 1773, when a Mr. Shoup conveyed half-an-acre to that congregation. On that tract there was erected a log house of worship and a log schoolhouse, and no doubt but that part of the tract was used as a place of sepulture. These buildings stood on what is now the eastern end of the present churchyard. The church fronted on the public road, and the schoolhouse was back of the church.

What is known as the "Old Cemetery", lying east of the present Union Church contains many red sandstone markers, some of which contain initials, some dates and initials and some both dates and names. There is certainly one and possibly two burials as early as 1766 and one dated 1771, indicating that there were burials there before the conveyance of Mr. Shoup in 1773.

No attempt has been made in these notes to trace the titles to the different purchases of property, but we have at hand record of a purchase from Lawrence Pearson, December 9, 1797 of one-half acre, Deed recorded Book No. 30, page 81. Also a purchase for cemetery purposes from Adam Scheetz, August 11, 1804, of half-an-acre, Deed book, No. 35, page 107. This was deeded to both congregations, showing that they held property in common at that date.. Another tract was purchased April 5, 1828, from Jacob S^{ass}aman and Jacob Wolfingern executors of the Estate of Lawrence Pearson, deceased. This was to be used for hitching posts. - Deed book No. 53, page 98/

UNION CHURCH

Although it is to be presumed that these two congregations worshipped together in the same building at an earlier day, the first Union Church building, of which we have an authentic record, dates from 1813, when a brick edifice was built on the site of the present (1920) Union Church. Its size was 40 feet by 50 feet. It was dedicated June 12, 1814.

In 1875 the Union Church of 1813 was demolished and replaced by the present substantial brick building, the size of which is 42 feet by 78 feet 4 inches. This was dedicated May 20, 1877. The writer of these notes was present at the dedication. Rev. Wm. S. Emory was then the Lutheran pastor and Rev. David Rothrock the Reformed pastor.

At the present time (1920) the pastor of the Lutheran congregation is Rev. S. S. Diehl, (*) who began his pastorate there January 1, 1892. The Reformed congregation has been served by Rev. Charles E. Weaver since 1892. Rev. Weaver resigned his charge in the summer of 1920, after a pastorate of 28 years. At the present time (October 1920) the Reformed congregation is without a pastor, ()

CEMETERIES

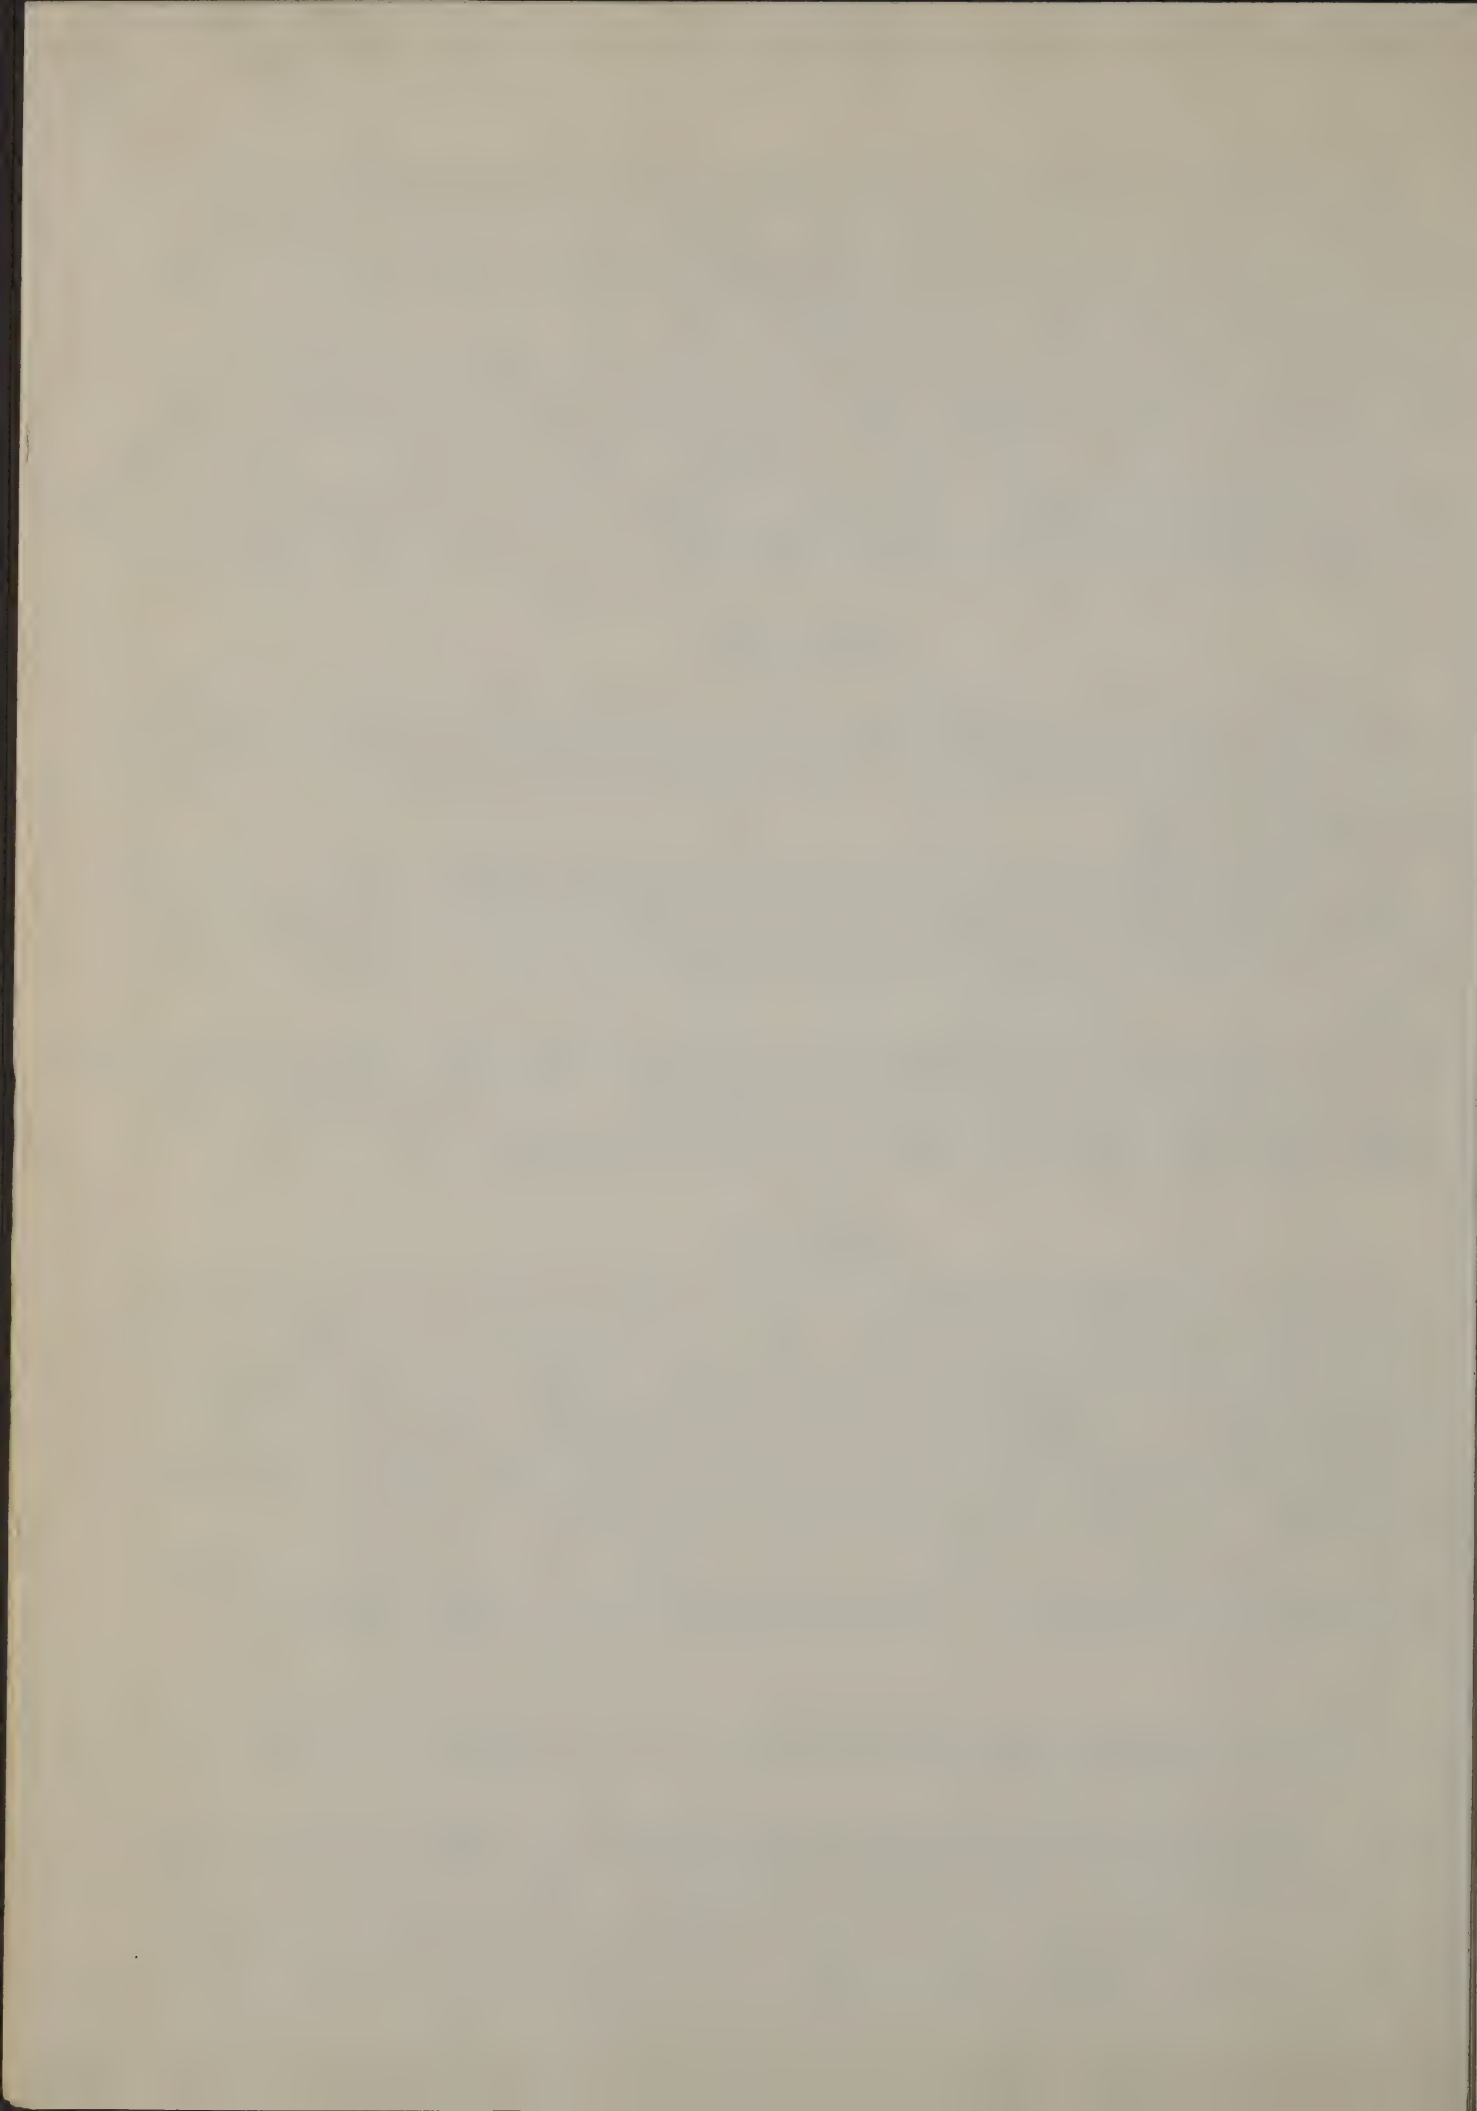

As shown in the following pages (referring to the graveyard records) there are four separate and distinct cemeteries. Those at the present time (October 15, 1920) contain 1,659 graves that are marked. This total includes 48 rough sandstone markers in the old graveyard which have only initials or dates (See page 64 of the Cemetery notes) There are hundreds of graves without markers of any kind. Probably not more than half of those in the old graveyard are marked. There are exactly 50 graves (marked) of persons dying previous to 1813, when the Union Church was erected. As stated above the earliest of these bears date 1768.

The sexton of both congregations is Francis Shive, whose postoffice address is Ferndale, Bucks County, Pa. He has supervision over all the cemeteries.

B. F. Fackenthal, Jr.

(*) Rev. S. S. Diehl died August 19, 1924, after a pastorate at Nockamixon of thirty-two (32) years

() The Reformed congregation after being supplied by supply preachers finally called the Rev. John W. Gilds. and David Linow was changed Weaver, had supplied Nockamixon for several years. Since moved Lower Merion, Indiana

(2) The first part of these entries, written in German, may not be in the hand writing of Rev. Stahr, but his pastorate is said to have begun in 1813. It certainly did begin at Durham in 1813, but Hoekamixon may not have been part of his charge until later. However, he lived quite near the Hoekamixon church. Later he bought a farm in Springfield township (later owned by David W. Hess) quite near the Durham township line.

This Church Record Book was opened by Rev. William T. Gerhard, who began his pastorate at Nockanixon in April 1844. His charge also included Durham, Tinicum and Red Hill. He resigned this charge in 1859, to accept a call at Lancaster, Pa.

This book, size 8 inches by 13 inches, is substantially bound in leather, and according to a receipt mounted in the book it cost $1.87 1/2. The first part or front is devoted to entries of communicants, confirmations and lists of church members. These have not been copied.

The reverse or back end of the book is devoted to entries of deaths. These have been copied as shown by the following pages hereof.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

CHICAGO, ILL.

TO THE HONORABLE SENATE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

DEAR SENATORS:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst.

and in reply to inform you that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration. I am, however, unable to say whether or not the same will be adopted.

I am, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
JOHN D. JACKSON, President

Very truly,
Yours,
J. D. J.

-----cc0cc-----

1. The first part of the book is devoted to a general introduction to the subject of the history of the English language. It discusses the various factors which have influenced the development of the language, such as contact with other languages, internal changes, and the influence of social and cultural factors. The author also discusses the importance of the study of the history of the English language for the understanding of the language itself and for the study of literature and culture.

2. The second part of the book is devoted to a detailed study of the history of the English language from its earliest beginnings to the present day. It discusses the various stages of the language, from Old English to Middle English to Modern English, and the changes which have taken place in the language over time. The author also discusses the influence of other languages on the English language, particularly Latin and French, and the influence of the English language on other languages.

3. The third part of the book is devoted to a study of the various dialects of the English language and the factors which have influenced their development. It discusses the differences between the various dialects and the reasons for these differences, such as geographical location, social class, and historical factors. The author also discusses the importance of the study of the dialects of the English language for the understanding of the language itself and for the study of literature and culture.

4. The fourth part of the book is devoted to a study of the various uses of the English language and the factors which have influenced their development. It discusses the differences between the various uses of the language, such as formal and informal, written and spoken, and the reasons for these differences, such as social and cultural factors. The author also discusses the importance of the study of the uses of the English language for the understanding of the language itself and for the study of literature and culture.

5. The fifth part of the book is devoted to a study of the various influences on the English language and the factors which have influenced their development. It discusses the influence of other languages, particularly Latin and French, and the influence of the English language on other languages. The author also discusses the influence of social and cultural factors on the English language and the importance of the study of these influences for the understanding of the language itself and for the study of literature and culture.

6. The sixth part of the book is devoted to a study of the various aspects of the English language and the factors which have influenced their development. It discusses the differences between the various aspects of the language, such as grammar, vocabulary, and pronunciation, and the reasons for these differences, such as social and cultural factors. The author also discusses the importance of the study of the aspects of the English language for the understanding of the language itself and for the study of literature and culture.

7. The seventh part of the book is devoted to a study of the various uses of the English language and the factors which have influenced their development. It discusses the differences between the various uses of the language, such as formal and informal, written and spoken, and the reasons for these differences, such as social and cultural factors. The author also discusses the importance of the study of the uses of the English language for the understanding of the language itself and for the study of literature and culture.

8. The eighth part of the book is devoted to a study of the various influences on the English language and the factors which have influenced their development. It discusses the influence of other languages, particularly Latin and French, and the influence of the English language on other languages. The author also discusses the influence of social and cultural factors on the English language and the importance of the study of these influences for the understanding of the language itself and for the study of literature and culture.

THE HISTORY OF THE REIGN OF KING CHARLES THE FIRST

THE first year of the reign of King Charles the first was a year of great calamity to the kingdom. The king was at the head of a party which was determined to maintain the rights of the crown against the claims of the commons. The commons, on the other hand, were determined to maintain their rights against the claims of the crown. The result was a civil war which lasted for three years. The king was killed at the battle of Marston, and the kingdom was divided into two parts. The north was in the hands of the king's party, and the south was in the hands of the commons' party. The king's party was defeated, and the commons' party was victorious. The king's party was executed, and the commons' party was established. THE HISTORY OF THE REIGN OF KING CHARLES THE SECOND

THE second year of the reign of King Charles the second was a year of great calamity to the kingdom. The king was at the head of a party which was determined to maintain the rights of the crown against the claims of the commons. The commons, on the other hand, were determined to maintain their rights against the claims of the crown. The result was a civil war which lasted for three years. 1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that this is crucial for the company's financial health and for providing reliable information to stakeholders. The text also mentions the need for regular audits to ensure the integrity of the data.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data. It describes how the company uses a combination of direct observation, interviews, and surveys to gather information. The analysis of this data is then used to identify trends and make informed decisions about the company's future.

3. The third part of the document discusses the challenges faced by the company in its current market environment. It highlights the increasing competition and the need for innovation to stay ahead. The text also mentions the importance of maintaining a strong relationship with customers and the need for effective communication.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the company's strategy for growth and expansion. It outlines the various markets the company is targeting and the specific actions it is taking to enter these markets. The text also mentions the importance of maintaining a strong financial position to support these efforts.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the company's commitment to social responsibility and environmental sustainability. It outlines the various initiatives the company is undertaking to reduce its carbon footprint and to support the local community. The text also mentions the importance of maintaining a strong reputation for ethical behavior.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the company's future outlook and its goals for the next five years. It outlines the various challenges the company expects to face and the strategies it is using to overcome them. The text also mentions the importance of maintaining a strong leadership team to guide the company through these challenges.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the company's financial performance and its key financial ratios. It outlines the various factors that have contributed to the company's success and the strategies it is using to maintain its financial strength. The text also mentions the importance of maintaining a strong relationship with investors and the need for effective communication.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the company's human resources and its commitment to employee development. It outlines the various initiatives the company is undertaking to attract and retain top talent and to provide ongoing training and development opportunities for its employees. The text also mentions the importance of maintaining a strong corporate culture.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the company's legal and regulatory compliance. It outlines the various laws and regulations the company is subject to and the strategies it is using to ensure compliance. The text also mentions the importance of maintaining a strong legal team to provide guidance and support.

10. The tenth part of the document discusses the company's overall performance and its contribution to the economy. The first part of the history of the United States is the history of the colonies. The colonies were founded by people who came from Europe. They came to America for many reasons. Some came to escape religious persecution. Some came to make money. Some came to start a new life. The colonies grew and became more and more independent of England. They had their own laws and their own government. They fought the American Revolution and won. They became the United States of America.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The second part of the history of the United States is the history of the early years of the new nation. The United States was a young country and it had many problems. It had to learn how to govern itself. It had to learn how to get along with other countries. It had to learn how to make money. It had to learn how to become a world power. The United States grew and became more and more powerful. It fought the War of 1812 and won. It became a world power.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

The third part of the history of the United States is the history of the late years of the new nation. The United States was a powerful country and it had many problems. It had to learn how to govern itself. It had to learn how to get along with other countries. It had to learn how to make money. It had to learn how to become a world power. The United States grew and became more and more powerful. It fought the Civil War and won. It became a world power.

On October 12, 1766, Mr. Christian Draher, trustee, at the request of Mr. Frederick Eberhard, trustee, and of the members of the congregation, came to the minister on the Tachicken, Rev. Michael Enderlein, to request him to provide them with the preaching of God's word. For this purpose Mr. Frederick Eberhard was willing to empty his barn, in order that services might be held there. But on October 25th, Mr. Michael Mosser called together the trustees and congregation and by a letter handed over to them the church which had been closed for several years. Hence Rev. Mr. Enderlein held divine services in the church on the following Sunday, October 26th, the 22nd. Sunday after Trinity.

In order that this divine service, begun by Mr. Enderlein, might be continued in the name of God, Mr. Frederick Eberhard, trustee, and Mr. John Haupt, determined to secure subscriptions from the members, how much each was willing to subscribe towards the support of the minister. ¹² To that end they visited all the members of the congregation on November 17, 1766, when they all willingly subscribed the sum of 410-18/ a year.

The annual financial account was rendered before me, Michael Enderlein, on February 2, 1767 :

As the congregation determined unanimously, the elders of the congregation are :

(1) Mr. John Heinrich - (2) Mr. Herman Junken - (3)

Deacons - (1) Mr. Rudolph Drach, yet 1 year

Elected by a majority vote - (2) Michael Schick for two years

Trustees - (1) Mr. Christian Draher, yet 1 year - Frederick Eberhard, yet 1 year

Elected by majority vote - John Schick for 2 years

John Haupt for 2 years

Herman Junken received as alms	41	16	1
expended for the congregation	1	11	1
Balance 5/ paid to Michael Schick	8	0

Frederick Eberhard received	0	11	0
Expended for the congregation	0	4	8
Balance 6/41 to Michael Schick	0	6	4
Michael Schick has in the treasury	0	11	4

The letter from Michael Mosser was handed to John Heinrich, elder, for preservation

On June 21, 1767, it was resolved, inasmuch as the church was as yet incomplete, without pulpit and seats and also needed to be plastered and wainscotted, and an additional window to be inserted, that the deacons and trustees should take this matter under their care and treat it as if it were their own. They accepted this commission and promised to assume the responsibility for it. In addition to their efforts each promised to contribute their share. But what if the poor congregation cannot raise the money for these expenses? We shall then appeal to our brethren of the Evangelical (Lutheran) church, in other congregations. The persons for this work are :- Deacons : (1) Rudolph Drach - (2) Michael Schick - Trustees : (3) Christian Draher - (4) Frederick Eberhard - (5) John Schick (6) John Haupt

On April 4, 1768, the above mentioned church council met.

1 - A subscription list of the congregation was submitted, showing what each promised to pay for the minister's salary 49 6 0, except free will offerings.

2 - Elders are elected by majority vote 1 - John Heinrich 2 - Rudolph Drach

3 - Deacons are : Michael Schick, yet 1 year - Frederick Eberhard, 2 years

The first of these is the fact that the majority of the cases of this disease are reported from the United States and Canada. It is not known whether this is due to a higher prevalence of the disease in these countries or to a more complete reporting of cases. The second point is that the disease is more common in the winter months. This may be due to the fact that the virus is more stable in the cold or to the fact that the population is more crowded in the winter months. The third point is that the disease is more common in the lower social classes. This may be due to the fact that the lower social classes are more crowded and have less access to medical care.

The fourth point is that the disease is more common in the United States than in Europe. This may be due to the fact that the United States has a higher population density and a higher standard of living. The fifth point is that the disease is more common in the United States than in Asia. This may be due to the fact that the United States has a higher population density and a higher standard of living. The sixth point is that the disease is more common in the United States than in Africa. This may be due to the fact that the United States has a higher population density and a higher standard of living.

The seventh point is that the disease is more common in the United States than in Australia. This may be due to the fact that the United States has a higher population density and a higher standard of living. The eighth point is that the disease is more common in the United States than in New Zealand. This may be due to the fact that the United States has a higher population density and a higher standard of living. The ninth point is that the disease is more common in the United States than in South America. This may be due to the fact that the United States has a higher population density and a higher standard of living. The tenth point is that the disease is more common in the United States than in the Middle East. This may be due to the fact that the United States has a higher population density and a higher standard of living.

The eleventh point is that the disease is more common in the United States than in the Far East. This may be due to the fact that the United States has a higher population density and a higher standard of living. The twelfth point is that the disease is more common in the United States than in the Pacific Islands. This may be due to the fact that the United States has a higher population density and a higher standard of living. The thirteenth point is that the disease is more common in the United States than in the Arctic regions. This may be due to the fact that the United States has a higher population density and a higher standard of living. The fourteenth point is that the disease is more common in the United States than in the Antarctic regions. This may be due to the fact that the United States has a higher population density and a higher standard of living.

The fifteenth point is that the disease is more common in the United States than in the Southern Hemisphere. This may be due to the fact that the United States has a higher population density and a higher standard of living. The sixteenth point is that the disease is more common in the United States than in the Northern Hemisphere. This may be due to the fact that the United States has a higher population density and a higher standard of living. The seventeenth point is that the disease is more common in the United States than in the Tropics. This may be due to the fact that the United States has a higher population density and a higher standard of living. The eighteenth point is that the disease is more common in the United States than in the Subtropics. This may be due to the fact that the United States has a higher population density and a higher standard of living.

The nineteenth point is that the disease is more common in the United States than in the Temperate Zone. This may be due to the fact that the United States has a higher population density and a higher standard of living. The twentieth point is that the disease is more common in the United States than in the Polar Zone. This may be due to the fact that the United States has a higher population density and a higher standard of living. The twenty-first point is that the disease is more common in the United States than in the Equatorial Zone. This may be due to the fact that the United States has a higher population density and a higher standard of living. The twenty-second point is that the disease is more common in the United States than in the Subtropical Zone. This may be due to the fact that the United States has a higher population density and a higher standard of living.

1774 - Inasmuch as Frederick Eberhard, Michael Schick, and Christian Trager have not been in church for a long time, as also Messers Ruf and Drach, and have created much havoc in the congregation, which is not becoming to elders and trustees, they have been today on the 1st Sunday after Trinity, publicly deposed from their offices, upon the order of the congregation and others have been elected by the congregation to fill their places, namely : Henry Frankenfield and Philip Michael, as the congregation cannot be without trustees, and especially since the others have tried to drive away the minister and scatter the congregation. But the dear Lord has kept our poor congregation in peace and harmony with the minister from the time that the above named enemies of the congregation have stayed away.

May the Lord preserve us furthermore.

Among a number of old documents and papers that passed through our hands during the last few years, none were more interesting than the following, in re the Neekmixon Lutheran Church :

"TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME GREETING :..

"To: Joseph Insley, Peter Shepherd and Jacob D. Becker, of the county of Bucks, and province of Pennsylvania, do send greeting : WHEREAS there are several accounts depending and divers controversies have arisen between Michael Messer of Neekmixon township, in the county and province aforesaid on the one part, and Herman Youngman, Henry Frankensfield, Peter Hains, Frederick Everhard and Christian Tranger, all of Neekmixon township, in the county and province aforesaid of the other part, and as whereas to putting an end to said differences, they, the said Michael Messer, and Herman Youngman, Henry Frankensfield, Frederick Everhard and Christian Tranger, by their several bonds or obligations bearing date the 25th, day of May last past, are become bound each to the other in the penal sum of 400 pounds to stand, to abide, perform and keep the award, order, and final determination of us the said Joseph Insley, Peter Shepherd, and Jacob Becker, or any two of us, so as the said award be made in writing, and ready to be delivered to the said parties in difference on or before the tenth day of June next, as by the said obligations and conditions thereof may appear.

NOW KNOW YE THAT WE, the said arbitrators, whose names are hereunto subscribed and seals affixed, taking upon us the burden of the said award, and having fully examined and duly considered the proofs and allegations of the said parties, do make and publish this our award between the said parties in manner following :-

That is to say we do award and order that all actions, suits, quarrels, and controversies, whatsoever had moved, arisen and depending between the said parties in law or equity for any manner of cause whatsoever touching their congregation and church to the day of the date hereof, shall cease and be no further prosecuted, and that the said Michael Messer shall pay and bear all charges and costs in anywise relating to the disputes and differences in behalf of and concerning their church, except the expenses of Joseph Insley's amounting to about one pound, which Herman Youngman, Henry Frankensfield, Peter Hains, Frederick Everhard and Christian Tranger shall pay, and be equally divided between them.

And we do also award and order that the said Michael Messer and his party shall have the privilege of the church now in dispute between the said parties, to employ any Lutheran minister to preach every other Sunday, in the said meeting house, without any hindrance or disturbance of the said Herman Youngman, Henry Frankensfield, Peter Hains, Frederick Everhard and Christian Tranger, or their parties.

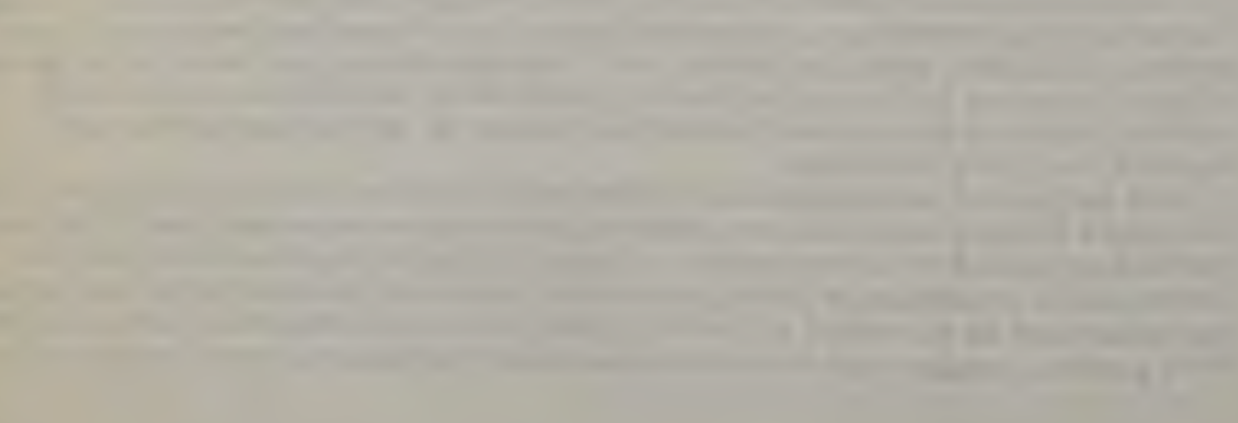

And we do also further award and order that the said Herman Youngman, Henry Frankensfield, Peter Hains, Frederick Everhard and Christian Tranger and their party, shall also have the privilege of the said church, now in dispute, to employ or hire any Lutheran minister to preach every other Sunday in the said meeting house or church, without any hindrance or disturbance of the said Michael Messer or his party.

And to prevent other disputes, we do order that the largest party shall have the first Sunday, and then keep every other Sunday as aforesaid, until the two parties agree and be as one party, and any of the two parties shall have the privilege of employing or hiring a minister to preach to them in the said church any other day in the week, without any hindrance from the other party, and if both parties, employ each a minister to preach in one day, or at one time, to prevent disputes, the party that first published that meeting to be at such a time, shall not be disturbed or hindered of their coming or meeting by the other party for that day.

And we do also award and order that the said Michael Messer or his heirs shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the said Lutheran congregation and church, for the use of the church for both parties in due form of law, a good and lawful deed or release for the half an acre of land, where the church now standeth, according to an agreement, which by an instrument of writing will appear, bearing date the 20th. day of August in the year 1761.

IN WITNESS whereof we have hereunto set our hands and seals, this the second day of June, One Thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty-four, 1764.

The above is in all probability the earliest original document in existence relating to the Lutheran congregation at Hockanixen. The early records of the church are all recorded in German script. The paper we have quoted is written in tolerably good English, and is well preserved, considering its age. The township was filled up with settlers between the years 1735 and 1750. A large proportion of these were Germans who had left their fatherland with the hope that in the new world they would be able to secure homes for themselves, and would be free from the terrible ravages of war, and religious persecution. Among these settlers were a small number of Lutheran families. As in many other sections of the state at that time, so also in Hockanixen, the first services were held in some barn, or in the log houses of the settlers. For the preaching of the Word they depended upon the services of such traveling preacher as might from time to time be induced to visit them. The spiritual condition of these early settlers was a pitiable one. The six days of the week brought to them naught but increasing toil in their efforts to build their humble homes, and subdue the wilderness and wrest from the stubborn soil an often meagre subsistence. The seventh day may have been a day of rest, but it did not bring with it the refreshing hours of worship in God's sanctuary. The supply of regularly ordained ministers was entirely inadequate, and remained so for a number of years. Considering their surroundings, and spiritual neglect, it is a wonder they did not lapse into infidelity. Their religious impressions must have been implanted strong and deep to have withstood all the years of neglect to which they were subjected. No owe to these men a lasting debt of gratitude for their untiring efforts in founding what is now a large and prosperous congregation.

This first attempt at organization seems to have been made about the year 1760. Half an acre of land was purchased from Michael Messer, and on it was erected a log church. The building stood almost on the present site of Centro Hall schoolhouse. It seems that the differences and difficulties resided in the document under consideration arose from the fact that Messer had failed to give the congregation a deed for their church property. This he was unable to do. Being a stranger, the then existing laws prohibited him from holding title to property or giving any title to others. (°)

From a later document, which seems to have been the outgrowth of this affair, we learn that he promised to give the congregation a deed as soon as he could procure a title to the original tract of which the church property was a part. From the Pennsylvania Archives we learn that naturalization papers were granted to him September 17, 1763. Before that date, viz. in 1766, the congregation had secured a regular pastor, in the person of Rev. John Michael Eulerlein. From this time on, the congregation was better organized and seems to have gained strength.

The fact that the congregation resorted to arbitration to settle its difficulties, is worthy of note. Most of our papers when advocating arbitration as a means of settling disputes, always seem to imply that it is a new method. This old document proves it to be older than the nation itself. The representative men of the church in 1764, were Michael Mosser, Herman Youngken, Henry Frankenhield, Peter Hant, Frederick Everhart and Christian Trauger.

Another old document of October 28, 1766, gives us what are claimed to be the names of the entire congregation at that time. It contains the signatures of Michael Mosser, Johannes Henrich, John Henrich Frankenhield, Peter Michel, Christian Trauger, Jacob Schick, Johannes Schick, Frederic Laborhard, --- Halb, Jacob Ruff, Frederick Hant, and three other names which cannot now be deciphered. From other authorities we learn that the earliest officers of the congregation were, Frederick Everhart and Michael Schick, trustees; John Henrich and John Hant, deacons; and Michael Hant and Christian Trauger, elders. These were the founders of Lutheranism in Heckamixen. The following data, obtained from various sources, in regard to these pioneers, may prove interesting:

1 - HERMAN YOUNGKEN, was beyond a doubt the founder of the family of that name in northern Bucks county. He located in Heckamixen township as early as 1764, and took up --- acres of land located along the Durham road. For some unknown cause he fell under the displeasure of the Heckamixen Lutheran congregation in 1766, and was deprived of the rights of membership, but was not prevented from attending services. He was still living in 1777, when he gave his allegiance to the then newly formed government.

Dapp records the arrival October 8, 1787 of John Jeremias Junghein, which the captains list has this name, Herman Youngken. This may have been the Herman who settled in Heckamixen. Dec. 1, 1806, two persons both by name of Hendrick Junghein and Anna Elizabeth Junghein arrived in America by ship "Three Sisters."

2 - CHRISTIAN TRAUGER - On some of the older documents this name is spelled Draker, Trauger and Trauer. Christian came from Backnang, Darmstadt, Germany, where he was born in 1723. He and his brother Henry located in Heckamixen about 1760. On Feb. 11, 1767, Christian purchased 123 acres of land in that township, which is still owned by his descendants. He died Jan. 8, 1811, aged nearly 88 years. The name Christian was a favorite name in the Trauger family. In 1775 there were two persons of that name enrolled among the militia of the township. In some old church records dated 1780, we again meet with two persons of that name, who were designated as Christian Trauger, weaver and Christian Trauger, carpenter. From church records we learn that Christian Trauger, the elder, and Christian Trauger, weaver and Christian Trauger, carpenter, were officers of the church at the same time, as was also Frederick Trauger one of the trustees. Thus the Trauger family held four out of the seven offices then existing. This shows that they were active in church work. In 1812, we find a Christian Trauger, who was a member of Capt. Phineas Holly's military company, and did service at Marcus Hook. In 1920 there were 117 marked graves of Drakers and Traugers in the Heckamixen cemetery.

The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the origin of life. It is shown that the problem is one of the most important and most difficult in the history of science. The author discusses the various theories of the origin of life, and shows that the most plausible is the theory of spontaneous generation. This theory is based on the fact that life is a complex of many different parts, and that these parts are all found in the same place, and at the same time. 3 - HENRY FRANKENFIELD, was a son of Simon Frankenfield, who came from the Palatinate. He sailed from Rotterdam in ship "Elliot", and landed in Philadelphia October 23, 1743. He settled in the Haycock Run valley, in Springfield township, if we are correct. Henry was a member of the Heckamixen company in 1775, and gave his allegiance to the new government before Thomas Long, Esq. June 8, 1778. His brother, Adam, was enrolled in the Springfield company.

4 - PETER HANEY. This name is also spelled Henig, Henish and Hanio. The family seems to have originally settled in Tynicum township, Bucks county, where Michael Haney in 1745, purchased 180 acres on the "Great Tschicken", and in 1749, added another tract of 180 acres. Anthony and Simon Haney were members of Capt. Nicholas Patterson's company of militia, recruited in Tynicum during the revolution. Among the passengers of the ship "Loyal Judith", we find the names of Johan Georg Henig. He landed in Philadelphia September 23, 1732.

5 - JOHN HEMPT is named as one of the earliest officers of the Heckamixen Lutheran congregation. We have the record of John Nicholas Hempt arriving at Philadelphia, Nov. 23, 1740, by ship "Loyal Judith", also Sebastian Hempt, who landed September 9, 1733, by ship "Glasgow". Sebastian was the ancestor of the Hempts of Springfield township. The former was in all probability the Heckamixen settlers. Original records, in our possession, show that John Hempt and wife, Elizabeth, were communicant members at Heckamixen from 1795 to 1797. Also that John, son of George and Anna Margaret Hempt, was born Jan. 12, 1795, and baptized by Pastor John Conrad Yager on March 22, of that year.

6 - MICHAEL SHICK was one of the first settlers of Heckamixen township. His name ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ and also that of John Shick are among the soldiers of the revolution, of that township. The Shick family, with the Trangers, Frankenfields and Messers, have held ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ continuous membership in the Heckamixen Lutheran congregation for a period of 124 years.

7 - THE ARBITRATORS in the church dispute were Joseph Insley, Peter Shepherd and Jacob Decker. The document seems to imply that Joseph Insley was the keeper of a public house, but if so we do not know where the house was. On Feb. 12, 1740, we find that the governor of Pennsylvania issued a captain's commission to Joseph Inslee, who had organized a company for defense against the Indians. Eight years later, Nov. 4, 1750, Joseph Inslee is again mentioned as the captain of militia, the ensign of which was his son, Joseph, Jr. These military companies did good service during the French and Indian war, which caused much hardship and suffering to the settlers on the frontier of our state. History gives us no clue as to the identity of Peter Shepherd.

Jacob Decker or Deagher as his descendants now spell the name, was a native of Germany, and landed in Philadelphia Feb. 7, 1730, in ship "Jamaica Calley". Rupp spells the name Decker. On September 12, 1773 he purchased from George Glise, subdivision No. 37 of the Durham Furnace Property, being one of the tracts lying in Williams township. In this deed his name is spelled Decker. In a deed poll foreclosing the property his name on Jan. 10, 1780 is also spelled Decker, and on June 10, 1800 when he buys back the property from Casper Fabian, it is also spelled Decker. In this last deed he is described as living in Northern Liberties, Philadelphia. He was the ancestor of the Deagher family, and gave his name to Deagher Hill, a spur or foot hill of the South Mountain, lying just north of Hicogsville.

HOCKANIXON, (NOW DUNDALE) DUCKS COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

Read at the Sesqui-Centennial Celebration Anniversary, August 10, 1913

By Rev. Samuel S. Diehl, Kintnersville, Pa.

The Lutheran Pastor of Hockanixon Church, 1892 to 1924 (*)

History is comparatively silent concerning Lutherism in Hockanixon in its early beginnings. The Irish and the English seem first to have occupied the soil of this township. These were Quakers, Presbyterians and Catholics. About 1740, some Germans settled in the swamp region of Hockanixon township, and some few also located in the lowlands. From 1740 to 1760 quite a number of Germans seem to have settled over the hill in the neighborhood of Centre Hill schoolhouse. A certain writer says this was possibly due to the cheapness of the land in that locality.

There is no record of any church services in these 20 years, between 1740 and 1760. If these people attended any Lutheran church it must have been some other one at a great distance, as Old Williams or Easton to the north; or Tobioken to the west. In 1761 we find efforts were made to have religious services in barns and private residences. We find an old paper in one of our ancient records where a man by the name of Frederick Eberhart opened his barn to have services.

In 1761 a plot of ground containing half-an-acre was purchased from Michael Messer () and efforts were made to build a church thereon. This was a log church and was not furnished with as much as a pulpit and pulpit chairs until 1767. We find a statement in an old record, that this year efforts were made to get a pulpit in the church, and it also tells us they were successful in their undertaking. This log church was located very near the present site of the Centre Hill schoolhouse. There was also a graveyard adjoining.

It is interesting to note how that church was built. They did not collect money, as we would do now, but according to an old paper one man gave so much lime, another so many logs, another so many boards, and so on. Lutherism surely had an humble beginning at Hockanixon. The first preaching, no doubt, was done by some good layman from amongst them; or by some itinerant pastor of the congregation until August the 6th, 1766, when an election was called by Christian Tranger and Frederick Eberhart, officers of the (Union) congregation, and Rev. John Michael Endorlein, who preached at (Tobioken) and Springfield, was called as the first regular pastor. proch.

"Tobioken" but Keller vs Tobioken when Rev. Endorlein was here.
The experience of the little flock of Lutherans between 1761 and 1766 were far from pleasant, as troubles of various kinds arose in that time. I have given the early history of our congregation much thought and study, and I am fully convinced in my mind that the foundations of the Lutheran Church at Hockanixon were laid, to a certain degree, by a minister of our church by name of Philip Henry Rapp. And I am also convinced that the famous document of 1764, of which you will hear later, had to do with this same man. Rapp came from New York to the Lutheran Church at Germantown in 1753, and remained there till 1762. In the spring of 1762 the troubles of the Germantown congregation occupied almost the entire time of synod. More than

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

BY JAMES M. SMITH

NEW YORK: THE UNIVERSITY OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, 1900

The history of the United States of America is a story of the growth of a great nation from a small colony of English settlers. The first settlers came to America in 1492, and the first English colony was founded in 1607. The colonies grew and developed, and in 1776 they declared their independence from Great Britain. The United States of America was born.

The United States of America has since then grown and developed into a great nation. It has won many wars, and it has made many discoveries. It has become a world power, and it has a great future ahead of it.

The United States of America is a land of freedom and opportunity. It is a land where every man has the right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. It is a land where every man can make his own way in the world.

The United States of America is a land of progress and innovation. It is a land where new ideas are born, and where new discoveries are made. It is a land where the future is bright and full of promise.

The United States of America is a land of peace and harmony. It is a land where every man can live in peace with his neighbor, and where every man can live in harmony with his fellow citizens.

The United States of America is a land of justice and equity. It is a land where every man has the right to a fair trial, and where every man is treated equally under the law.

The United States of America is a land of hope and faith. It is a land where every man can believe in a better future, and where every man can have faith in his fellow citizens.

100 families at Germantown petitioned synod for another pastor, with the result that Rapp was forced out of the Germantown church, and it is recorded of him that after the meeting of synod he departed to the wilds of Bucks county and there preached to the people and tried to organize a congregation. This spring of 1762 coming about the period when efforts to organize the Lutherans into a congregation, of which we are members today. I am convinced in my mind that it was Rapp who made efforts to organize the Lutherans into a congregation, because the first church was only a short distance from the old Rapp homestead. I am sure that he was one of the parties concerned in the famous document of 1764. The reputation of a man naturally follows him, sometimes goes before, and it is but natural that people in a congregation learning that a man was guilty of a great wrong and being deposed from the ministry, would not tolerate him as their spiritual counselor; yet on the other hand it is also a fact that a man down and out has his sympathizers and friends. We can therefore easily understand why there was such a bitter struggle in this infant congregation, and the reasons for appointing a board of arbitration to adjust the difficulty, as we have it in the famous document of 1764. This document is as follows: Three men, Joseph Insley, Peter Shephard and Jacob Becker were appointed a board of arbitrators, between Michael Messer on the one side, and Herman Krueger, Henry Frankensfield, Peter Hanoy, Frederick Eberhart and Christian Tranger on the other part. This board met at the home of Joseph Insley, and heard all complaints and controversies. Their unanimous decision was, that one party should have the use of the church one Sunday, the other party should have the right to have any Lutheran pastor to officiate. They also ordered Michael Messer to give a good and lawful deed to the congregation. This document was signed the 2nd. of June, 1764. Now no names of pastors are mentioned which is a peculiar feature about it, but since Rev. Enderlein became pastor of Springfield in 1763, and since we have it in the record that he had been preaching in the barn of Frederick Eberhart previous to his election as pastor, we are inclined to believe that there was a dispute between the adherents of Rev. Rapp and Rev. Enderlein, that was settled by this board of arbitrations.

We also find, that after Rev. Enderlein was elected regular pastor, Aug. 6, 1766, the door of the church was closed against him, and the services were again held in Frederick Eberhart's barn. On the 25th of August 1766, Michael Messer handed over the keys of the church, and on August 26, 1766, Rev. Enderlein preached for the first time in the church as regular pastor. When we review all their hardships, all their strifes, it is a wonder the little congregation survived it all. But a brighter day seems to dawn for the struggling little flock, the clouds seem to roll away, and the infant takes on new life.

The first officers of the newly organized congregation, were Michael Mast and Christian Tranger, elders; John Heinrich and John Haupt, deacons; Frederick Eberhart and Michael Shick, trustees. These were the founders of Lutheranism at Hochmiesen. The first baptism recorded was John Frederick Krueger, son of Michael Krueger, born August 12, 1766, baptized October 10, 1766. Spencers, Frederick Eberhart and his wife Elizabeth.

THE FIRST COMMUNION.

The first communion was held October 1766, (*) there were 23 persons who partook of the elements. I thought it might be of interest to have their names recorded, they are as follows:

John (Pangratius ?) Reichhold and wife Margaret and daughter Margaret Martin Briol and wife Anna Maria - John Haupt; Peter Stein and wife Margaret;
 Frederick Eberhart and wife Elizabeth Margaret; Catharine Rudio (Ruck ?);
 Michael Schick; Christian Tranger and wife Anna Barbara & daughter Elizabeth Barbara;
 Anna Maria Dolio (Kohl ?) Michael Messer and wife Elizabeth; Philip Gruger and wife
 Anna Margaret; Anna Maria Adams; John Heinrich and Margaret Maurer.

ELECTION OF PASTORS

JOHN MICHAEL EMBERLEIN, the first pastor, was born in Germany in 1726, and was educated at the Leipzig University. He was ordained in Germany in 1751. He was pastor at Heckmixin from 1763 to 1770, when he went to Dauphin County, Pa. He became a large land owner in said county, but was driven from his home by the Indians in 1778. He died in Philadelphia March 6, 1800.

REV. JACOB S. MILLER, Apparently the congregation was again without a regular pastor for sometime. However, in 1773, Rev. Jacob S. Miller became pastor for several years. He was followed by:

REV. FREDERICK WILLIAM DESANNO, who left about 1769. He was a Frenchman, the son of a revolutionary soldier. After leaving Heckmixin, DeSanno became pastor of the Lutheran church at Carlisle, Pa., one of our strong wealthy churches, where he labored for many years until 1814. During the war of the revolution the church at Heckmixin suffered from its baneful effects. Quite a number of its members cast in their lot with the cause of freedom.

REV. PETER ABL became the pastor in 1783 to 1793.

REV. ANTHONY HECHT - The congregation, after the retirement of Rev. Abl, seems to have been without a regular pastor, but the records show that in 1793 and 1794, money was paid to Rev. Anthony Hecht, who preached at Koller's church.

REV. JOHN CONRAD YEAGER, pastor at Stewartville, N. J., also seems to have supplied the church at intervals, but we have no record to show that either he or Hecht were regular pastors of the congregation.

REV. AUGUSTUS SCHMIDT, was elected pastor in 1793. He died in 1801 and was buried at Koller's church, where he was also pastor. He was followed by:

REV. JOHN PAUL FREDERICK KRAMER in 1801. He remained at Heckmixin until 1803 when he went to Dauphin county and preached in some of the churches organized by Rev. Emberville.

REV. JOHN NICHOLAS MENSCH became pastor in 1803 and remained until 1823. He was therefore pastor of the congregation when the union was effected with the Reformed church, and the new union church was built on the site of the present church in 1813. (Note - The Union Church was built on the site of the Reformed church) It is interesting to note how the congregation developed during the pastorate of Rev. Mensch. At a communion service held in October 1803, there were 34 communicants.

A list of the officers of the congregation in 1799, at the close of the eighteenth century might be interesting here; They were Elders, Christian Tranger, Sr., and Christian Tranger, the weaver; Deacons Peter Trach and Christian Tranger, the carpenter; Trustees Henry Miller and Frederick Tranger; Caretaker of the pear, Frederick Rufe.

INTERNAL STRIFE

The records tell us that the congregation became disheartened on account of internal strife, lack of growth and the dilapidated condition of the church building, and being poor in financial circumstances as a congregation, a movement was started to build a union church on or near the site of the old Reformed church.

UNION CHURCH OF 1813 - 1875

On April 3, 1813, a committee which had been appointed to canvass for funds, reported favorably. A building committee was therefore appointed consisting of Nicholas Kruger, Peter Long, Frederick Tranger, George Adams, Henry Loidigh and Abraham Palmer. Philip Loidigh was elected treasurer and Henry Miller secretary. The corner-stone was laid April 19, 1813. In 1814 an agreement was drawn up where by both congregations were given equal privileges. The church, apparently, was finished in 1814, and stood until 1875 when a new and larger church was built.

According to an old record dated 1813, the first union church cost in nearly $3,210.30. It is remarkable to note how exact and business-like the forefathers were in the building of churches. We have an old agreement between the building committee and a man by name of John Raiser, who furnished the bricks for the church; every time he burned a kiln of bricks, the committee reserved the right to examine them accompanied by an experienced bricklayer. There was also an agreement between John Esterline and the building committee with regard to boarding and lodging the mechanics and laborers who were employed at the church. Esterline agreed to give them good substantial food and to lodge them well for two shillings and two pence a day. Now (1913) a man cannot get one decent meal for that amount of money. Another thing that has impressed me was to note how exact these old fathers were, to the very penny. A paper in my hands shows that the annual settling of our congregation in 1781, the treasurer was found to be six shillings short (78¢) and gave his note for the amount, which, according to a receipt in my possession, was paid in full May 27, 1792.

After the first union church was built in 1813, things moved along smoothly. A change of pastors took place in 1823, when:

REV. HENRY S. MILLER became pastor, he remained until 1830. His charge included besides Nechamizen, Springfield, Durham, Finicum, Kellers, and Apples churches. Surely a big parish. Rev. Miller was born in Lehigh county in 1801, and died at Phoenixville, Pa., August 24, 1867. He was known as a fast driver, as he was a great lover of fast horses. A very interesting document concerning the schoolhouse, standing alongside of the church, is found among our records. Three men, in 1820, were elected by the combined congregations, as trustees of the school. At an election held, David Seip was elected for one year, John Glynor for two years, and Christian Truenger for three years, thereafter one man was elected every year as the terms expired. The teacher must possess a good knowledge of scriptures, and be able to prove a good character, and able to teach both English and German. This shows how concerned they were about training the rising generations. What different qualifications were needed then as compared with a teacher of today. The main qualifications then were not thought about at the present time. This was before the time of free schools.

REV. CHARLES FREDERICK VOLDEN Another pastor came upon the scene in 1830, when Rev. Charles Frederick Volden became pastor. He remained until 1842. He was born in Germany and landed, with his parents, in New York City in 1818. He served congregations in New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. He died in Philadelphia, October 2, 1897. He was known as the "Horrying Pastor", as it was not unusual for him to have a dozen or more weddings a month, according to the record. In 1830, we find a paper in our possession, that the schoolhouse of the church was leased to the school board of Nechamizen. An agreement was drawn up between the church trustees and the board of school directors. The trustees were Joseph Truenger, Frederick Fisher and John Wolfinger. The school board consisted of Jacob Stover, Jr., James Martin, Jacob Maer, David White, Moses Weaver and Jacob Black. It was signed in the presence of Nicholas Luck and Francis Lapp. I was surprised at the plain, bold signatures of these men, some of them must have been extra fine writers.

REV. CHARLES HENRY MILLER A change of pastors now again becomes necessary. The longest pastorate in the history of the congregation, began in 1842 when Rev. Charles Henry Miller was called. He was born in Baltimore, Md., October 26, 1805. He remained with the congregation till 1865, a pastorate of 23 years. He was an able preacher and a diligent student. He could speak German, English, French, Italian and Spanish. He died January 17, 1869, and lies buried in the Nechamizen cemetery, by side of a son, who died for his country on the bloody field of Gettysburg. Rev. Miller was a strong union man during the civil war. English preaching

The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the origin of life. It is shown that the problem is one of the most important and interesting in the history of science. The author discusses the various theories of the origin of life, and shows that the most probable one is the theory of spontaneous generation. This theory states that life originated from non-living matter, and that it has since developed into the various forms of life that we see today. The author also discusses the evidence for this theory, and shows that it is supported by a large number of facts. The second part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the evolution of life. It is shown that life has evolved from simple to complex forms, and that this evolution has been the result of natural selection. The author discusses the various theories of evolution, and shows that the most probable one is the theory of natural selection. This theory states that the fittest individuals survive, and that they pass on their traits to their offspring. The author also discusses the evidence for this theory, and shows that it is supported by a large number of facts.

The third part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the future of life. It is shown that life is still evolving, and that it will continue to evolve in the future. The author discusses the various theories of the future of life, and shows that the most probable one is the theory of continued evolution. This theory states that life will continue to evolve from simple to complex forms, and that it will eventually reach a stage of perfection. The author also discusses the evidence for this theory, and shows that it is supported by a large number of facts. The fourth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the role of man in the evolution of life. It is shown that man is a part of the evolutionary process, and that he has played a significant role in the development of life. The author discusses the various theories of the role of man, and shows that the most probable one is the theory of man as a part of the evolutionary process. This theory states that man is a product of natural selection, and that he has evolved from simple to complex forms, just like all other forms of life. The author also discusses the evidence for this theory, and shows that it is supported by a large number of facts.

The fifth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the relationship between life and the universe. It is shown that life is a part of the universe, and that it has evolved from the universe. The author discusses the various theories of the relationship between life and the universe, and shows that the most probable one is the theory of life as a part of the universe. This theory states that life is a product of the universe, and that it has evolved from the universe. The sixth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the role of the human mind in the evolution of life. It is shown that the human mind is a part of the evolutionary process, and that it has played a significant role in the development of life. The author discusses the various theories of the role of the human mind, and shows that the most probable one is the theory of the human mind as a part of the evolutionary process. This theory states that the human mind is a product of natural selection, and that it has evolved from simple to complex forms, just like all other forms of life. The author also discusses the evidence for this theory, and shows that it is supported by a large number of facts.

The seventh part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the future of the human mind. It is shown that the human mind is still evolving, and that it will continue to evolve in the future. The author discusses the various theories of the future of the human mind, and shows that the most probable one is the theory of continued evolution. This theory states that the human mind will continue to evolve from simple to complex forms, and that it will eventually reach a stage of perfection. The author also discusses the evidence for this theory, and shows that it is supported by a large number of facts. The eighth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the role of the human mind in the future of life. It is shown that the human mind is a part of the evolutionary process, and that it will play a significant role in the development of life in the future. The author discusses the various theories of the role of the human mind, and shows that the most probable one is the theory of the human mind as a part of the evolutionary process. This theory states that the human mind is a product of natural selection, and that it will evolve from simple to complex forms, just like all other forms of life. was first introduced during Rev. Miller's pastorate, but met with much opposition. This strong adherence to the German language was a great drawback to the advancement of the congregation, as many members were lost to the church, amongst them some of its best supporters.

LOSS TO CONGREGATION

In 1860, the Diegelville Lutheran church was organized when some withdrew to help organize that congregation, but the greatest loss came in 1862, when the Upper Tincum congregation was organized. That congregation (with Rev. John B. Miller as its first pastor) connected itself with the General Synod branch of our church, and started out with all English services. These conditions appealed to many of the members who went into the new organization.

REV. WILLIAM S. EMERY - Rev. Emery became pastor in 1865 and remained with the congregation until 1879. English services then became more general, and seemed to be growing in favor. It was during the pastorate of Rev. Emery that the new and enlarged church was built. The corner-stone was laid July 3, 1876, and the church was dedicated May 20, 1877. It is one of the largest and most substantial churches in Bucks county, its size outside is 43 feet by 73 feet 4 inches, built of bricks. Quite a debt remained upon this building at the time of its dedication, but it was gradually reduced until it was finally all paid off. David Rath, Jacob Zenger and Charles Neen were appointed the Lutheran members of the building committee at a meeting held February 21, 1875. These men surely exercised good judgment when they built such a good substantial church as the present building. Rev. Emery's body lies buried on his family plot in the Frenchtown, N. J. cemetery.

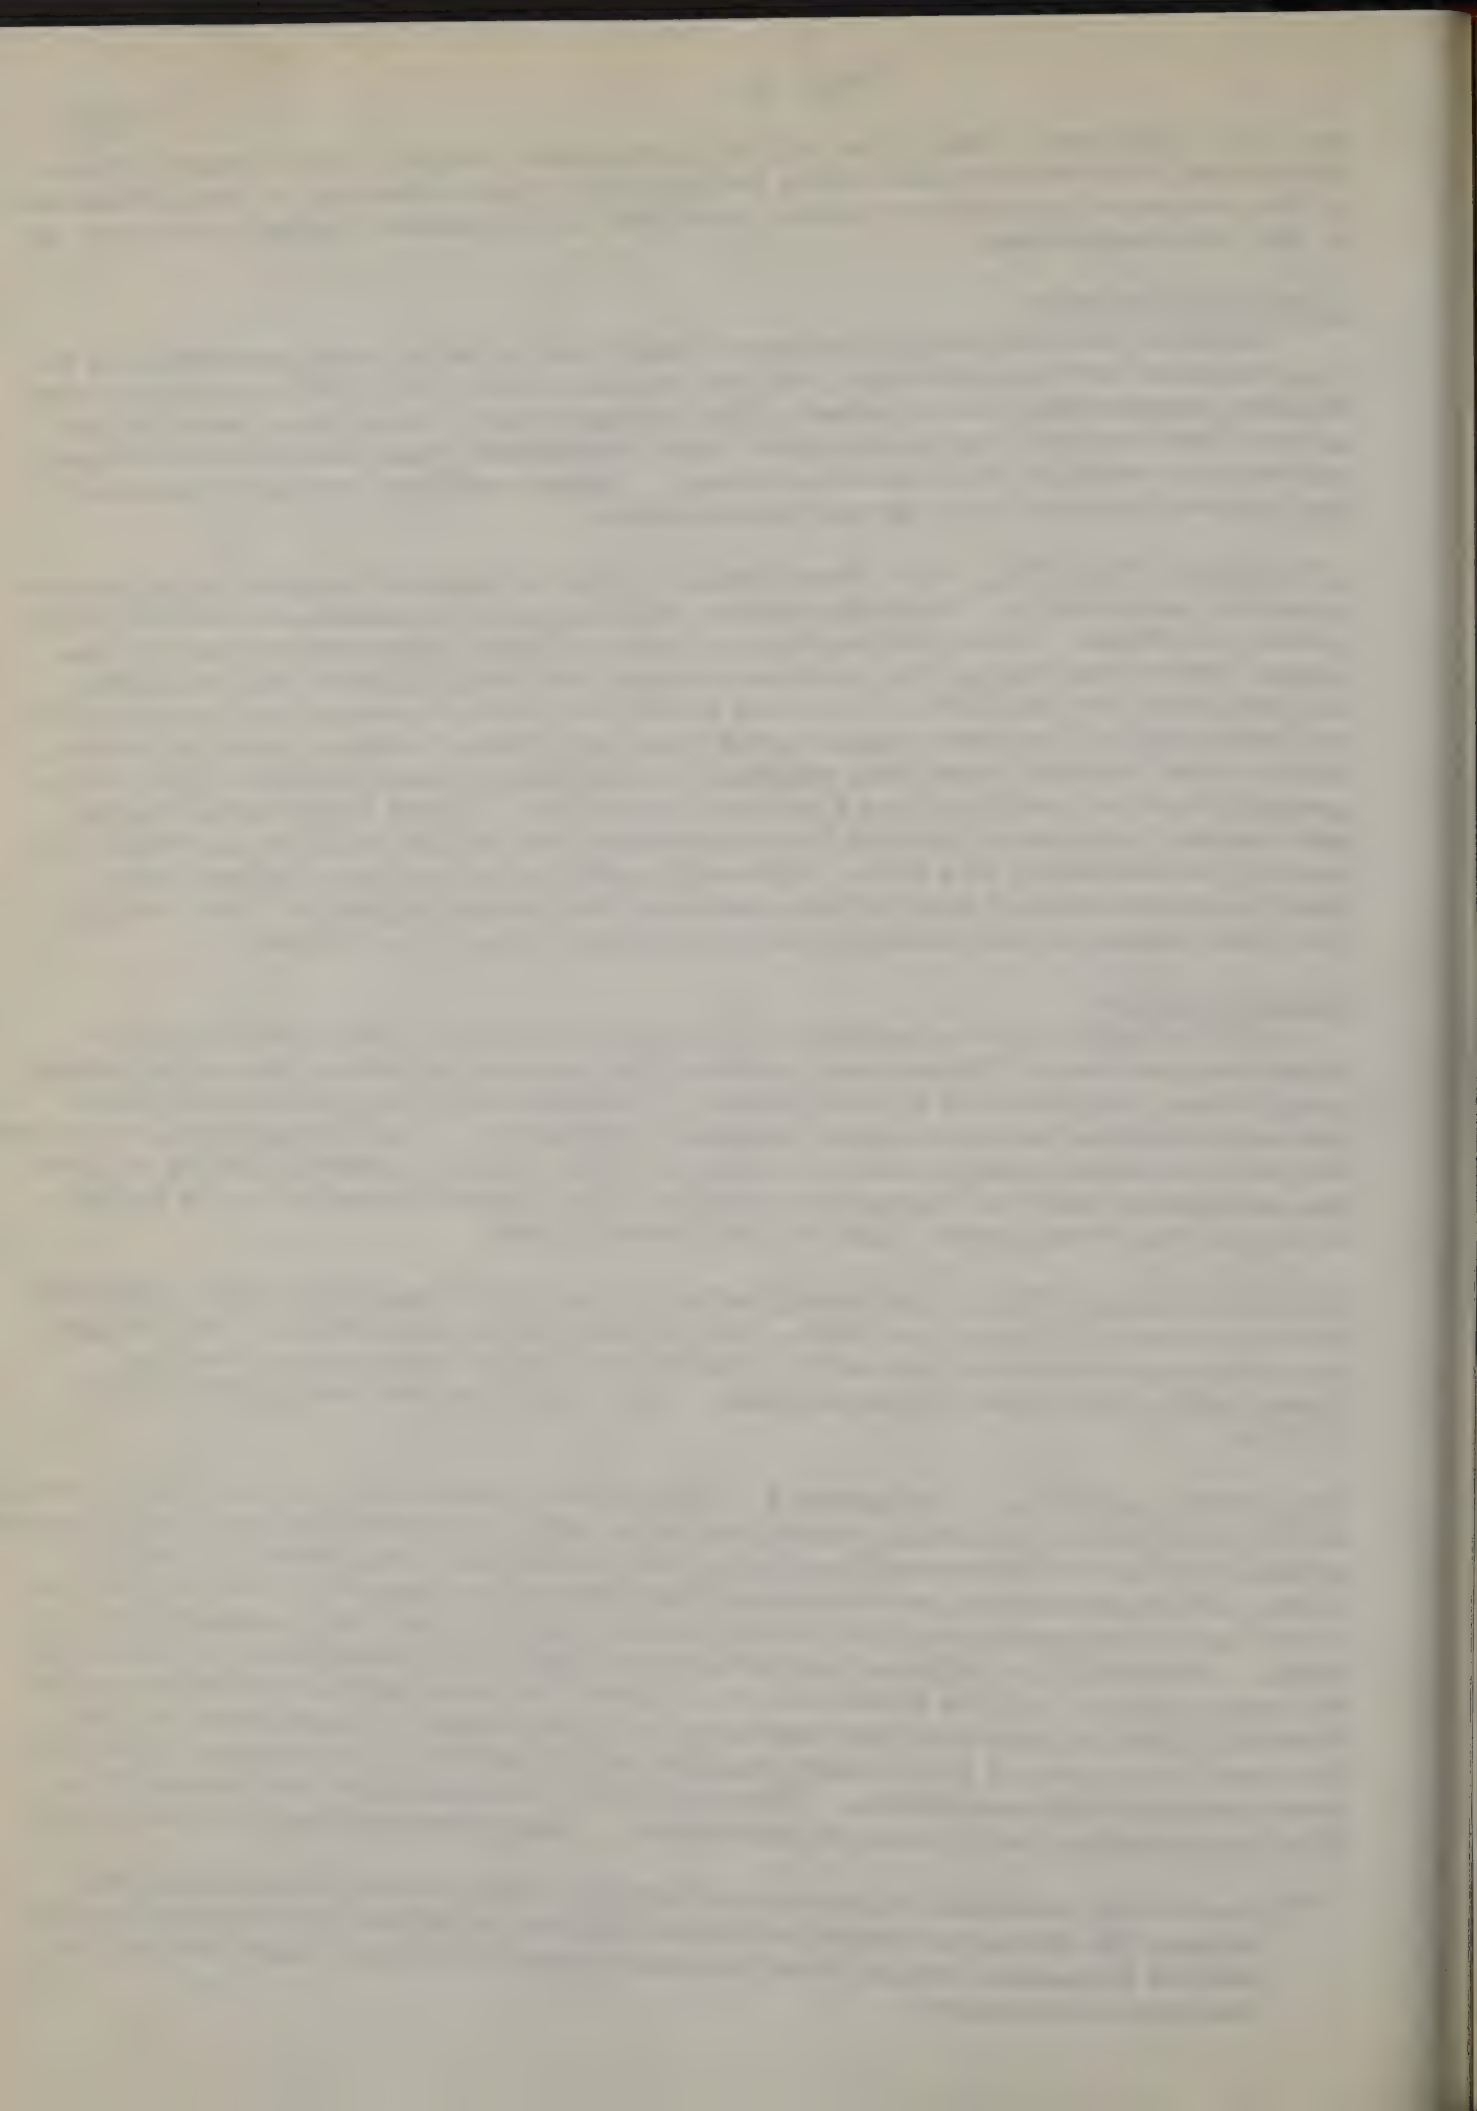

TWO FURTHERAALS

In 1879, Durham and Springfield and Springtown for many years connected with Mechanixen and Lower Tincum as a parish, withdrew and left these two congregations stand alone, still served by Rev. Emery. A sentiment now seemed to develop in the congregation, to change their synodical connection. In February 1880, a meeting was held for that purpose, and by a vote of 60 for and 25 against, decided to sever its connection with the Pennsylvania Synod of the General Council, and to connect with the East Pennsylvania Synod of the General Synod.

REV. OLIVER H. MILLER - Immediately after joining the General Synod Rev. Oliver H. Miller, a son of the congregation, was unanimously elected pastor. Now the congregation again became a part of the Springtown charge, consisting of Durham, Springfield, Springtown and Mechanixen. It remained in that charge till January 1, 1882.

REV. SAMUEL S. BUNT - On January 1, 1882 when Mechanixen (of the Springtown charge) and Upper Tincum (of the Diegelville charge) united and formed a new charge, known synodically as the Kintnersville charge, Rev. S. S. Bunt, was elected the first pastor of the new charge, and has been the pastor ever since. () A Sunday School, in a flourishing condition, has been connected with the Mechanixen church for many years. On April 23, 1886, a Home and Foreign Missionary Society was organized by the congregation, and has done much, we believe, in developing a missionary spirit. However, there is much room for improvement in its missionary operations, and the hope and the prayer of your pastor is, that all of you may develop more loyalty to your church and its activities. This centennial is a good time to a new, dedication of yourselves to the work of the master. The present officers of the church () Rev. Diehl continued as pastor at Mechanixen down to the time of his death August 19, 1904, and therefore served this congregation for 52 years 7 months and 18 days, much longer than the long pastorate of Rev. Miller to which he has drawn attention.

are, Elders, Milton D. Trauger and Jacob H. Trauger; Deacons, George A. Purdy, Edwin H. Trauger, D. Horace Dichtl and Cyrus Stover; Trustees, Gabriel R. Cressman, Andrew J. Dean and Harvey N. Trauger. George A. Purdy is treasurer of the council, and Edwin H. Trauger is secretary.

ENTERED THE MINISTRY

As far as I have been able to discover, five sons of the congregation have entered the ministry viz: Rev. Albert Miller, a son of Rev. C. F. Miller; Rev. Wilson Selner of Lutherburg, Clearfield county, Pa.; Rev. Oliver H. Melcher of Springtown, Pa.; Rev. Daniel R. Becker of Woodbine, Maryland and Rev. Harvey Dichtl of Lockport, New York. You will notice that as a congregation, you did not furnish as many ministers as the number that served you. Are there not some young men amongst us, who should heed the great call for laborers, and consecrate themselves to the holy office? Pray over this matter young men. We notice that the congregation had most humble and lowly beginnings; she experienced many strifes and tribulations; she has undergone many changes; has met many difficulties; had various reverses and trials; yet she pushed nobly on in the grand work of the Master, and today enrolls in her record 537 members in good and regular standing, and is one of the strongest, possibly the strongest Lutheran congregation in the county. She is upon a sound financial basis, and is abundantly able to do much work for the Master. Brethren and sisters, rise up to your responsibility and opportunity, and future historians can then recall even greater and nobler things. Do not be satisfied with achievements, but look forward to greater successes and victories for the Lord's work. Let every one do his or her part, and what a power for good may the Lutheran congregation at Lockmanixen become. The pastor cannot make your church a great power if the membership does not stand beside him, and support him.

A hundred years have rolled away. Their record is complete; be up and doing while it is called today. Do daily some good deed.

August 10, 1913

At the same anniversary celebration the Rev. Charles Weaver of the Reformed congregation delivered an address giving the history of his denomination.

NEAR FERRIDALE, ROCKAWAY TOWNSHIP, BUCKS COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

The corner-stone of the present church contains dates 1813 and 1875

The present, 1875, church edifice is substantially built of bricks size 48 feet by 78 feet 4 inches

There are four cemeteries at the present church as follows :-

- O - The Old Cemetery - East of the church and fronting on the public road.
- L - Called Lutheran Cemetery back of and adjoining the old cemetery on the south.
- R - Called Reformed Cemetery, lying immediately back and south of the present church edifice. West of the Lutheran Cemetery and separated from it by a driveway.
- H - The New or Union Cemetery, detached from the others, nearer Ferridale, and fronting on the south side of the same public road.

The following is believed to be a full and complete list of all marked graves as of October 15, 1920 - Taken by B. F. Fackenthal, Jr., of Hiogetsville, Pa.

The letters prefixing the names indicate the cemetery in which they lie buried.

All dates with an asterisk, thus * are obtained by calculation :-

1. The first part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the success of any business or organization. The author provides a detailed overview of the various methods used to collect and analyze data, highlighting the strengths and weaknesses of each approach. The second part of the paper focuses on the application of these methods in a real-world context, using a case study to illustrate the practical implications of the research. The author concludes by summarizing the key findings and offering recommendations for future research and practice.

SANDSTONE MARKERS IN OLD CEMETERY

In addition to the foregoing list of marked graves in the Neeshamixen Cemeteries, there are 48 sandstone markers (Now Red Sandstone) containing dates or initials which are decipherable, of which a memorandum is given below.

There are also 23 sandstone markers with names included in the foregoing list.

There are also many other sandstone markers without data of any kind. And further it appears that fully one-half of the graves in the old cemetery are not marked in any way.

The list of the 48 markers above referred to is as follows :-

This private burying ground was visited on the afternoon of October 17, 1920 by B. F. Fackenthal, Jr., It is located in Nockamixon Township, Bucks County, approached through a lane leading into the farm.

There are quite a number of graves indicated by sandstone markers, some without letters or dates of any kind, and none containing complete data.

The following were all the marks that could be deciphered:

The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance in the theory of the differential equations of the second order.
The second part of the paper is devoted to a detailed study of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance in the theory
of the differential equations of the second order.
The third part of the paper is devoted to a detailed study of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance in the theory
of the differential equations of the second order.
The fourth part of the paper is devoted to a detailed study of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance in the theory
of the differential equations of the second order.
The fifth part of the paper is devoted to a detailed study of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance in the theory
of the differential equations of the second order.
The sixth part of the paper is devoted to a detailed study of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance in the theory
of the differential equations of the second order.
The seventh part of the paper is devoted to a detailed study of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance in the theory
of the differential equations of the second order.
The eighth part of the paper is devoted to a detailed study of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance in the theory
of the differential equations of the second order.
The ninth part of the paper is devoted to a detailed study of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance in the theory
of the differential equations of the second order.
The tenth part of the paper is devoted to a detailed study of the problem. It is shown that the problem is of great importance in the theory
of the differential equations of the second order.
